I wanted to do something a little different for my craft talk today and show you in person some of the new apparel we have coming out. Many shoppers struggle with purchasing apparel without seeing it first so by bringing in one of my suppliers you could see first-hand the quality and sizing of the new products arriving. If anyone saw an item they really liked I would be happy to provide additional samples for you and your staff to check out. I also wanted to touch base again on the fact that we offer free company stores and/or fundraising stores to Execs members. The company stores allow businesses and/or clubs to take a "hands off" approach and not keep logo'd inventory so they can focus on their own respective businesses while fundraising stores are a great way to bring in some revenue in a unique way. The stores can booster incentive programs, provide team unity and brand your company all at the same time! Here is a link to one we did for HR One so you can get a feel for the framework if you are thinking it could benefit your business:

5 Star reviews and comments on our Facebook page and Google go a long way in our competitive market, so please show the power of Execs and help us by leaving a review at one or both of the links below if you have not done so yet!
